You'd be 'barking mad' not to let Envisage Promotions be the 'paracetamol' to your exhibiting headaches in 2022 and beyond!

LOOKING FOR THE REMEDY TO YOUR EXHIBITING HEADACHES?

by Nichola Clydesdale

Envisage Promotions knows all too well how time consuming it is organising an event.

With multiple re-scheduled exhibitions currently happening alongside those that were already in the diary, you may have already reached for the paracetamol!

It seems a shame that so many companies are already feeling frazzled, given that we should all be celebrating that our 'businesses are back on track'.

As well as providing cover for your hospitality and hostess requirements, our staff specialise in all manner of promotional sectors.

Our staff can engage with footfall traffic, distribute leaflets on behalf of your business and even dress-up in character costume, all 'tried and tested' ways to encourage visitors onto your stand!

With the eagerly anticipated Ideal Home Show opening its doors at Olympia once again in March, along with Crufts at the NEC and the ICE Gaming show finally happening this April, if your 'to-do' list is seemingly endless, perhaps we can help?

GET NOTICED WITH 'RENT A CROWD'!

by Nichola Clydesdale

Have you ever wanted to step away from your usual marketing strategy and try something a little more 'off the cuff'?

You may have had plenty of different and possibly even 'outrageous' ideas, but when it comes to implementing them, you really don't know where to begin. You're definitely not alone, and that's where Envisage Promotions can help!

Since the beginning of January, we've received a huge amount of enquiries for our acting staff to participate in TV commercials, promotional advertising, PR stunts and even as 'rent a crowd' cast members.

Businesses are clearly back and wanting to shout about it, with one recent request being for a leading high street paint manufacturer photoshoot.

Their vision was to have a crowd of actors dressed in decorating overalls, all standing on an oversized paint tin to promote the brand in the run up to the busy Easter period.

'Renting a crowd' isn't just limited to red carpet type events, and as well as creating quite a stir in shopping centres and high streets, our staff have certainly turned a few heads on public transport too!

Dating back to 2015, our epic underground publicity stunt became a You'Tube' sensation, with people both bemused and transfixed on seeing 20+ people leisurely going about their business dressed in white morph suits!

ALL YEAR ROUND COSTUME CHARACTER FUN!

EVERYONE'S FAVOURITE BUNNY IS BACK!

by Nichola Clydesdale

Nearly as popular as Santa himself, everyone's favourite 'fluffy' costume character is back!

Quotes for the Easter Bunny remain as popular as ever, with bookings for our cotton tailed rabbits coming in thick and fast.

Much to the delight of children, and less so dentists, the majority of bookings are for Easter Bunnies to distribute chocolate eggs, sometimes with a little help or assistance from other Envisage Promotions staff, in shopping centres across the UK.

Like with all popular exhibitions and seasonal events, even when demand is high, we can always 'hop to it' and find more staff, as with over 30,000 people registered on our books, there's always plenty to go round!

Whether you're after a Shakespearean character, a Harry Potter lookalike or a fluffy bunny to deliver chocolate eggs, we're here to help!
