BE THE BEST IN SHOW WITH US!

by Nichola Clydesdale

As a nation of dog lovers, and with over 34% of all UK households owning one, it's no surprise that a canine friend is the most commonly owned pet!

Many offices now even have their very own 'dog' as part of the team, and at Envisage Promotions we're always happy when Kira, a 'Huskita' who was re-homed from the Dogs Trust in Kenilworth is around!

Held just around the corner at the NEC, it's hardly surprising that the world famous annual dog show 'Crufts' remains as popular as ever! We might not be experts at champion dog breeding, but we certainly know a thing or two about exhibiting at this epic show!

Our teams can represent your brand in so many ways. From encouraging 'pawfall' onto your stand and offering tasty sampling treats to the four legged visitors, to promoting the latest must have doggy outfits, or acting as runners between the numerous NEC halls, our dog loving staff always love to work this show!

We even have staff willing to 'wag their tails' as costume characters, a sure way to make your space stand out!

So, whether you're looking for additional hospitality support on your stand or teams to demonstrate your products, be the best in show with Envisage Promotions!

WALK DOWN THE AISLE IN STYLE!

WALK DOWN THE AISLE IN STYLE WITH ENVISAGE PROMOTIONS

by Nichola Clydesdale

With the events season now back in full swing, Envisage Promotions always has temporary staff assisting businesses, and especially those who are exhibiting. From the NEC and ExCeL, to Olympia and the SECC, our staff cover the length and breadth of the UK.

Along with always taking the time to select the best matched, high calibre staff to your brief, we always aim to choose candidates who reside in close proximity to the exhibition hall. So, regardless of whether you're exhibiting at The Baby Show or Grand Designs Live at ExCeL, or at Insomnia Gaming, the Commercial Vehicle Show or The National Wedding Show, all held at the NEC, our teams always deliver!

In fact, along with this bespoke pairing, we also aim to match our staff to jobs which best reflect their personality, tastes and style, so someone who loves 'little people' would be best suited to work on a stand at The Baby Show, and our 'gaming fans' always love to demonstrate the latest VR headsets and games consoles!

However we can help to promote your business, be sure to get in touch!

THE TEAM THAT WORKS HARD & PLAYS HARD!

Behind the friendly faces that our clients get to meet on a daily basis, Envisage Promotions consists of a structured 'behind the scenes' team of dedicated individuals, who work tirelessly to supply the UK with temporary staff and Santa's.

So, after an all time record number of bookings in December, and a year which surpassed even our expectations, it seemed only right to celebrate our success in style!

As such, we flew Envisage HQ to Barcelona for a well deserved few days away in honour of these epic achievements!

ActionCOACH

WE'RE ALWAYS LEARNING!

As a forward thinking company going from strength to strength, Envisage Promotions has recently started to work with ActionCOACH, a company who specialises in coaching other businesses.

Through techniques such as SWOT analysis, ActionCOACH helps businesses to identify their areas for growth and potential areas of weakness, something that many businesses struggle to identify.

We're thrilled with this co-operative partnership so far, and have already started to implement our strategic recruitment drive for 2023, which will include five brand new positions spread across our Talent Recruitment team, our Customer Services department and our Business Team.

A PROMOTION FOR BRADLEY JACK!

Even if you've never had the pleasure of speaking to him, we're certain that many of you will be familiar with the name Bradley Jack!

Having joined Envisage Promotions as an apprentice and having previously worked in retail, Bradley has worked his way up and we're delighted to announce his recent promotion to our Operations Director.

MEET THE TEAM : GEORGE KELLY

Every month the internal team at Envisage HQ gets bigger and bigger, so to ensure you can put a familiar face to the name, we like to focus on a member of staff.

This month it's the turn of our newly promoted Contracts Manager, 'George Kelly' who is determined to ensure every task he is given is completed and that he goes above and beyond what is expected of him!

DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT!

"We requested and hired Derek for our Santa's grotto at our Christmas Fayre as he did a great job for us in 2021, and this year he was just as good! Derek spends quality time with the children whilst sticking to a timescale and goes the extra mile with his fabulous acting skills. He is very kind and good at what he does."
