UK & INTERNATIONAL VENUES

IT'S EXHIBITION SEASON

by Lee Murphy

Much like going 'trick or treating', here in the UK it's becoming customary to make an annual visit to the pumpkin patch in anticipation of Halloween!

Whilst having an illuminated pumpkin cited outside is a great way to let children know that the homeowners are up for 'trick or treating', it also gives competitive adults the chance to hone in on their carving skills!

Unlike the warmer American climates where we have adopted this custom from, pumpkin picking in the UK often needs warmer clothes and wellies!

It's not unusual to encounter muddy pumpkins fields and boggy ground to park on, and that's where our marshals can help!

Not only will they signpost eager pumpkin pickers as to where best to park, they can also guide eager pumpkin pickers as to where the best patches to yet to be picked from!

From directing visitors as to where to park, to assisting at events and even acting as back-up security, don't get in a pickle this autumn and book your temporary marshalling staff today!

SANTA EVERYWHERE

RECORD BREAKING NUMBER OF SANTA BOOKINGS

by Nichola Clydesdale

2023 seems to have been our year for breaking our 'personal best' and this year we had 343 professional Santa performers around the Globe (yes in Malta and Dubai too). We had Santa's working in grottos, corporate events, private home visits, schools, TV and anywhere else you can think of.

It's our busiest but favourite time of year.
