The Grand Union Ramble

Our very own George out walking again for Charity

New year, new destination, same ambition!

Following the success of last year's "The Great Commute," George and his three friends are embarking on a new journey along The Grand Union Canal for 2024's 100+ miler. From Braunston, Northamptonshire to Buckingham Palace, London over 4 days.

After raising over £5,000 last year, George hopes that we are able to raise just as much money for two more fantastic charities and with the accommodation and food costs being aided by two fantastic companies in Envisage Promotions and Bechtle who are sponsoring this year's walk.

Our chosen charities are closely tied to our sponsors:

Wiltshire Air Ambulance: In memory of Justin Edhouse, one of Bechtle UK's founding employees who sadly passed away just before Christmas. We want to honor his legacy and the joy he brought to everyone he met.

Myton Hospice: Selected by Envisage Promotions in memory of Diane Friswell, a dear friend of the company who passed away in July 2024. The hospice provided invaluable support and counseling to Diane and her family during her illness and Envisage is committed to supporting this worthy cause.

We hope you will support us as we embark on this incredible adventure. Stay tuned to our social media channels for updates on progress during the walk.

July Catchup

July has been a busy month for Envisage Promotions, with our dedicated staff bringing energy and excitement to a variety of events across the country. From new exhibitions to festivals, our team has been all over the UK.

Our month kicked off with a delightful campaign where we had chocolate bar mascots handing out free goodies, spreading smiles and delicious treats wherever they went.

Meanwhile, our hostesses added a touch of excitement to furniture store openings, ensuring guests felt welcomed and informed.

The summer fun continued with our staff managing fun fair stalls, providing games and entertainment for families and friends. At festivals, our enthusiastic team members sold raffle tickets, contributing to the vibrant atmosphere and supporting local causes.

A standout highlight was the launch of the Batman Unmasked Exhibition in Manchester. Our staff continue to play a crucial role at this event, assisting visitors and enhancing their experience as they delved into the world of Gotham's Dark Knight, receiving loads of great customer feedback so far.

Thank you to our fantastic team for their hard work and dedication. Stay tuned for more exciting events as we move into August!
